Adolph Dubs Death

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 14, 1979

(R)

To Mary Ann Dubs

Rosalynn and I share your sadness for the personal loss you have suffered, and your shock and anger at the act of violence which took your husband's life. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Ambassador Dubs was known to me as one of the most able and dedicated members of the Foreign Service. Throughout his career, he met one difficult challenge after another with exemplary patriotism and skill. He died as he lived, in selfless and courageous service to his country.

I extend my deepest personal sympathy to you in this sad hour.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Carter
